Zakat and Sadaqat Fund

To secure a stable source of income For needy families

• Introduction

Praise be to Allah who bestowed and endowed, and who rewards charity-giving and Zakat paying individuals. Peace and blessings be upon the Prophet of guidance, his family and companions, and those who followed him.

The mission of the Zakat and Charity Fund, under the Ministry of Justice and Islamic Affairs and Endowments, necessitates raising awareness on the importance of Zakat as a religious duty, developing its sources and advancing mechanisms employed for the collection and disbursement of Zakat and charity to eligible individuals. In light of this mission, which aims to facilitate strengthening social solidarity, the Fund has prepared a clear strategy that encompasses programs and projects that contribute to achievement of desirable objectives. This strategy is based on scientific research studies and field surveys conducted by a number of specialized administrative staff and social researchers.

The project promotes transparency by means of allowing access to information and data of programs, funds and activities carried out by the fund. In addition, it symbolizes the concept of partnership between government and private institutions, and forms the actual commencement of joint action on the institutional and individual levels alike.

Zakat Fund has the honor to invite you to lend a hand and maintain its project “Ta’afuf Shares”, which will play an active role in supporting the fund, by your membership. This is crucial to facilitate accomplishing social solidarity and enhancing philanthropic activities that aim to secure a decent life for citizens.

- Why “Ta’afuf Shares”?

The Zakat and Charity Fund was keen to select a name that is in harmony with modern institutions and at the same time, is based on Islamic perspectives. As such, the term “Shares” was specified to denote trading, profit-sharing and development activities. On the other hand, the term “Ta’afuf” (modesty) was chosen based on verse 273 of Surah Al-Baqarah, describing the category of people that is eligible for charity, which says:

2:273 (Charity is) for the poor who, in Allah’s cause are restricted (from travel), and cannot move about in the land, seeking (for trade or work). An ignorant man would think that they are self sufficient because of their modesty. Thou shalt know them by their (Unfailing) mark: They beg not importunately (or at all). And whatever of good ye give, be assured Allah knoweth it well. ******

Likewise, there is a Hadeeth by the Prophet to this end:

Narrated Abdul-Hamid bin Jaffar: there was a man who was asked by his mother to approach the Prophet, peace be upon him, and ask for charity as other people do. The man says I then went to the Prophet, whereby he was giving a sermon. The Prophet was saying: (Allah will provide substitute for the one who is modest, and will give means to the one who does without asking for charity. Anyone who asks for charity while owning the equivalent of five uqiyahs is considered someone who begs importunately). The man said to himself: Then, one’s owning a camel and his servant owns another one has better life than one who owns five uqiyahs. The man went back without asking.
